THE GUNNERS—The like of the partridges and rabbit hunters this fall was never seen before. They have been comin' and goin' and the boom of the gun from morning till night is like warfare. Rabbits have been very plentiful, but partridges are seldom barged, as the few flocks that are left promptly take to the bushes when flushed.

TO SAVE TIME.—The pigeons that most of the hawks and crows eat are the ones sometimes with a bitterness and violence that threatened the subversion of law and order. The organized growers have triumphed but not without a truce in their heart that was at first aggressively enthusiastic. Predictions were freely made by many of the more astute observers that the pool was bound to break down from the mighty resources of the Toledo Trust, but the success of the grower's number of growers. And the success of the pool is undoubtedly a wonderful accomplishment when all things considered. The return of night is a great week.

"If ye do, Abe," giggled Sary, "they'll let you stay there until ye git ripe enough to pick".

A sprinkling of rain and the sun shining was the best Monday could do in the drouth-breaking gale.

A project is up to establish a big one-cent daily at Chicago to spread Democratic sentiment. What brand of Democracy?

THE Democratic National Committee reports that it collected a campaign fund of $620,644.77 and spent of it $619,410.19. Now the Red Cross has been established so as to meet the public can have an idea of the money necessary to elect a President.

The death of the Emperor and the Dowager Empress of China came at an inopportune time for the great civilized nations of Europe, for now Japan must be reckoned with as having attempted stabilizing and dismemberment of the Celestial Kingdom.

It is alleged that Andrew Carnegie has written an article for a magazine in which he says that infant industries no longer need protection; that steel and other industries have grown beyond the need of tariff protection. Who would have thought it?

BRYAN said at San Antonio, Texas, last week that while he could not see his way to war in circumstances four years hence demanded him he would battle. Now all that said "three times and out" can take it back. As long as the poor old party doesn't object to being ridden to death it is nobody else's business.

OUR old friend the German Emperor had his last battle of dirt for the first time in his life, still because he wagged an impudent tongue recklessly to a British man, arraying the German people firmly solidly against the sentiments he uttered. He was good to be good henceforward and the people are rejoicing accordingly.

PRESIDENT-ELECT Tarr lets it be known that the Republican campaign pledge to revise the tariff laws must be sincerely undertaken, and as a means to that end one Joseph Cannon must be induced to do his best for reform or chance a defeat for the Speakership of the next term of Congress. And what a pretty struggle there will be.

JUDGE CHAS. E. BOOKE, said to be an Indianian by birth, but Judge of Fleming county in recent years and a holdover Democratic client in the State Auditor's office, Franklin, has been discovered to have appropriated an indefinite amount of the State's money to his own use. Speculation and betting on horse races are alleged causes of his downfall.

A big daily called the lady members of the Kentucky Equal Rights Association, which met at Richmond last week, "suffragettes." That will stimulate them to imitate their British sisters in swooping down on the Kentucky ballot with demands. One can see the finding of a Kentucky General Assembly in such an event.

MAYOR THOS. L. JOHNSON, of Cleveland, O., announces that his fortune is exhausted and that he shall have to give up his mansion and automobiles. He has been regarded as a millionaire for many years. An understanding man, the mayor has been that, with his socialist vagaries (which he thought Democracy), he ever became a millionaire and that he even retained his fortune for any length of time.
